REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

To the Members of the Atkinson School Board and Citizens:

It gives me pleasure to submit my second annual report of the schools of Atkinson.

AIMS OF EDUCATION

The objectives of the school have changed much during the past decade. School executives and administrators realize as never before the deep concern schools have in manners, morals, right habits of conduct, correct attitudes of mind, and the health of the child. Such problems have forced themselves on the schools with strong demands.

Good health must be taught by the public schools. The World War brought home the fact that twenty-five per cent. of young men presenting themselves for service were unfit physically. Health rules, the exercise of which will recreate people in new vigor are very simple. Proper food, sufficient rest, enough recreation, and proper attention at the right time to physical infirmities which manifest themselves will guarantee good health for children. Such a program has now been instituted under the supervision of the State Board of Education. Every child receives a thorough physical examination. This is made the basis of helpful advice from the health nurse. Treatment for serious cases is being secured without cost.

The public schools may profitably spend much time in teaching fundamentals. Surveys recently made with the use of educational tests indicate gratifying results in reading. The same is true of the fundamental processes of arithmetic. Some weakness is in evidence in problem work and stress is being laid in teaching problems. Spelling has shown considerable improvement during the past two years. Greater stress must be laid on ability to spell correctly in daily work.

Knowledge of the vocations should be given in the seventh and eighth grades and an opportunity for some prevocational work ought to be offered. Such instruction tends to elevate the respect of pupils for manual labor and furnish a basis for vocational work later in life.

A third objective of public education is training the child to use his spare time profitably. The tendency of the modern American youth who does not have careful guidance and definite responsibility outside of school is to get into trouble. Therefore the school should assist the home in developing plans for the proper use of spare time. Schools are offering greater facilities for reading, aiming to give the child some good music, encouraging him to observe birds, trees, flowers, assisting him in organizing for group activities. More may be done than has been done and every effort and expenditure of money wisely will bring rich results.

The wise teacher will keep closely in touch with the home for the school should train for worthy home membership. Each boy and girl may well be given a daily task by parents. The teacher should encourage the child in the proper performance of this. Respect for and obedience to parental authority are aims which the school ought to assist in realizing. Appreciation of the right and privileges of each member of the home will lead the child to a proper appreciation of rights and privileges of the large social group of which he is a member.

Much emphasis has been placed on training for citizenship. Necessarily training for citizenship involves acquisition of most of the foregoing qualities. A child who possesses good health, has a proper respect for the dignity of labor, who has been trained to spend his spare time profitably, who is a worthy member of his home group, will usually become a good citizen. A certain knowledge of history and of civics is also essential. The public school has a deep responsibility to the nation, then, to create loyal citizens.

Finally the public school should lay the foundation for ethical character. It is all important that a child should receive definite instruction, in the great principles of right attitudes, correct habits, and clear, straightforward thinking. The public school has yet a greater responsibility than it has exercised. Superintendent Fred Hunter of Los Angeles, Cal. said in a recent address: "The crime bill in the United States is $10,000,000,000 annually, and that of education only one-tenth as much. Most of the crime is committed by the youth of the land between 18 and 25. And the majority of crimes are committed between 6 and 11 P. M. A president of a university is standing for law violation. It is about time we did something about character education and training. The evil, illiterate controlled vote can elect a president of the United States. When we think of character education what do we think? What do we teach? The schools do not have to teach the fundamental principles of denominationalism but ought to teach the fundamental principles of right living."

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC

To the Superintendent and School Board:

I hereby submit my annual report as supervisor of music in the Atkinson Schools.

The report includes no record of change in textbooks, with the exception of the High School, where "McConathy's Glee and Chorus Book" was introduced at the beginning of the 1924 Fall term. The songs in this particular book are well arranged for a small chorus, and prove pleasing to all. In the primary grades The Hollis Dann First Reader and Songs of Childhood are used for rote song work. First Studies in Sight-Singing, a book containing simple songs and exercises is used in grades two and three. The Congdon Music Reader, which deals in problems for upper grades is proving very satisfactory with its attractive one, two and three-part songs.

The work in singing is being carried on in the usual way. The supervisor visits once a week, plans the lesson, and presents step by step the music problems throughout the course. Our aim is to secure greater excellence from year to year in tone quality and in sight-singing and to develop a love for good music. To this end, the teachers co-operate with interest and skill.

The Victrola recently purchased at the North End School is proving a source of pleasure and also a great help in the training of musical appreciation.

In closing I want to express my appreciation and gratitude to the Superintendent and School Board for the interest and support given the work.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA WILLIAMS THOMPSON.
